

Safe Summer Survival Coordinator

Waverley Action for Youth Services (WAYS) is a major provider of assistance and support to young people in the Eastern Suburbs, South Sydney, City of Sydney and surrounding suburbs. WAYS services include - employment, education, counselling and case management, mental health, youth outreach and recreational programmes.

The Safe Summer Survival Programme Coordinator is responsible for the development, planning and co-ordination of a peer education programme providing health promotion and education about alcohol and other drugs and safe sex practices to young people in the Inner and Eastern Suburbs of Sydney. The position is primarily based at Bondi Beach with planned outreaches into the community. The position is casual position during the length of the project from Sept 2010 - April 2011. The project is youth led and delivered therefore it is a condition of employment to be between the ages of 16 – 25 years old.

Ideal applicants for this position will have:

Essential:

- Experience in developing and delivering health promotion activities to young people.
- Ability to work evenings and Saturdays.
- Own car, current Class C Drivers Licence and ability to drive a manual vehicle.
- Collaborative approach to problem solving and team work.
- Experience in programme development and evaluation.
- A high level of written, oral and interpersonal communication and organisational skills.
- A genuine interest and commitment to work with disadvantaged young people.
- A solid knowledge base around sexual health and alcohol and other drug information.

Desirable:

- Experience in group facilitation with young people.
- Supervision of staff and volunteers.

For a position description and selection criteria, please contact:

Bianca Briggs
Receptionist
9365 2500
ways@ways.org.au

For further information, please contact:

Terri Said
Counselling Team Leader
9365 2500
terri@ways.org.au

Applications close: 17 September 2010